

Contact Information

David Moore

mooreschoolofmusic@gmail.com

Overview

David Moore is a musician, composer, and educator from New Hampshire. He's studied with Paul Bordeleau, BB Bowness, Jeremiah McLane, Earl MacDonald, Doug Maher, David Newsam, Nathan Jorgensen, Mark Shilansky, and Dallas Vietty. He plays regularly for contra dances and other events around New England. He was a founding member of 'Pressure's On', a New-Hampshire-based bluegrass band, with Jordan Tirrell-Wysocki, Dave Talmage, and Gemini Meeh, and he's shared the stage with many other talented musicians as well.

Career Highlights

Playing on 'Into the Cold', an album by Jordan Tirrell-Wysocki, in 2012

Appearing on WSCA's Local Folk radio show in Portsmouth, NH, hosted by Steve Carrigan, with Emeline Dehn-Reynolds on October 7th, 2013

Codirecting music for the play 'The Gift of the Magi: The Musical' at The Player's Ring in Portsmouth, NH, with Sabrina Avedisian, from November 21st, 2013, through December 1st, 2013

Playing at New Hampshire Day at The Big E in West Springfield, MA, with Pressure's On (Dave Talmage, Jordan Tirrell-Wysocki, and Steve Roy) on September 19th, 2014

Playing at David Newsam's faculty recital at the University of New Hampshire on March 22nd, 2019

Directing music for the play 'A Christmas Carol' at The Player's Ring in Portsmouth, NH, from December 6th, 2019, through December 22nd, 2019

Codirecting music for the play 'A Christmas Carol' at The Player's Ring in Portsmouth, NH, with Maggie O'Neill, from December 1st, 2023, to December 23rd, 2023